HEAVY REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

J. A. Robertson Appointed Permanent Administrator of the William Dunivant Estate—Bond $650,000.

The case of Heitmann against Masterson is still on trial in the Eleventh district court.

In the probate court Judge Dupree entered an order appointing J. A. Robertson of Galveston permanent administrator of the estate of William Dunivant, deceased, and fixed his bond at $650,000. Mr. Robertson, who was appointed temporary administrator by Judge Vasner, was allowed $600.00 for his services as such.

The appointment was contested by J. A. Robertson and A. M. Waugh of Eagle Lake, and notice of appeal to the district court was given by them.

Judge E. H. Vasner, late county judge, moved his office from the court house to 2134 Main yesterday. The rooms occupied by him will be used by the county clerk as an addition to his office.

The poll tax notice that appeared in yesterday's Post had the effect of stirring up this class of voters, and a large number of them paid their tax, obtained their receipts and had their names placed on the supplemental roll, thus safely securing their right to vote in future elections. One individual who was assessed on real estate had his tax separated, taking receipt for his poll tax and leaving the other unpaid.
